GENDER GAPS IN CYBERSECURITY

The need to promote gender equality in countering the use of information and communications technologies for criminal purposes

THURSDAY, MARCH 9TH

PARALLEL EVENT AT CSW 67
8 AM EST (NEW YORK)

REGISTER TO JOIN

PANELISTS

LINDA WITONG

Soroptimist International, former prosecutor, member of the CSW 67 Advocacy Research Group for CSW NY

ISABELLA WILKINSON

Research Associate in the International Security programme at Chatham House and Associate Editor, Journal of Cyber Policy

ALISON YAKABE

Lead Analyst, Cyber Security Team, GIAC Certified Incident Handler

CONTEXT

The event will discuss how Cybersecurity failures have become a reflection of offline patterns of abuse, exclusion and discrimination, often magnified when women and girls enter the online space. Panelists will report on the progress of gender mainstreaming in the elaboration of a comprehensive International Convention on Countering the Use of Information and Communications Technologies for Criminal Purposes.
