

Gender-related Killings of Women and Girls (Femicide/Feminicide)

Briefing for Civil Society on the UNODC Global Estimates

5 December 2023, 3:00 - 4:00pm CET

Hybrid event

VENUE:

Vienna International Center (VIC),
CR-6 (7th floor, C-building).
In person attendance is limited to people with access to the VIC.

ONLINE:

<https://shorturl.at/fpxAY>

The newly released estimates on femicide by UNODC refer to all types of gender-related killings of women and girls. They reveal that more than half of all female homicides are committed by family members or intimate partners. This briefing for civil society will allow for discussion on how to engage to end impunity and increase prevention of gender-based violence.

FACILITATOR:

Anna Alvazzi del Frate,
Vice-Chair, Alliance of
NGOs on Crime
Prevention and Criminal Justice

SPEAKERS:

Angela Me, Chief Research and
Trend Analysis Branch, UNODC
Maurice Dunaiski, Associate
Expert, UNODC

DISCUSSANTS:

Myrna Dawson, University of Guelph
Saide Mobayed, University of Cambridge
Co-editors of The Routledge
International Handbook on Femicide and Feminicide

